Christmas Spirit spreads across Kirkburton Parish

Christmas spirit is spreading across Kirkburton Parish Council area as the trees appear in 8 of its villages. With the exception of one tree, which is paid for by Kirklees, the trees are organised and paid for by the Parish Council. They have been installed in Farnley Tyas, Flockton, Grange Moor, Highburton (pictured right), Kirkheaton, Shelley, Shepley and Stocksmoor.

The Parish Council has also funded the lights on the trees the Councillors planted last year in Lascelles Hall and Thurstonland, as well as the lights over the shops in Lepton Square.

Cllr Steve Beresford, Chairman of Kirkburton Parish Council, said “Not only do the trees brighten up the areas and bring a little Christmas cheer to the villages, they often provide a backdrop for all the local festive events, which are taking place at this time of the year.”
